Beer

We are huge craft beer lovers, but beers are constantly rotating. So, here are our favorite breweries in Northern California where you can pretty much get any style of beer in bottles and/or cans to-go.

If you're looking to serve beer on draft, check out a local beverage retailer like Total Wine & More or Bevmo.

1) Moksa, Rocklin CA - They're always brewing a wide variety and everything is always super tasty. If you like IPAs, Sours, Lagers or Barrel-Aged Stouts, this is the spot. It's also our neighborhood tap room, so you might see us there!

2) Slice, Lincoln CA - A small but mighty brewery that originally specialized in producing some really fresh tasting IPAs. They've since expanded their menu and are now putting out some great sours and stouts.

3) Great Notion, Sacramento CA Fulfillment Center - This brewery is based out of Portland, OR and recently opened a fulfillment center in Sacramento. They're not technically from NorCal, but they brew all styles well and have an easy-to-use app to place and pick up large orders – convenient for events.

Other breweries to check out: Moonraker, Device, Urban Roots and Track 7.

So many to choose from, so little time!
